

Cass 'Imagines'

Cass has calmed down a lot this season. He's not only controlling himself he's controlling the game!

Football always allowed me to move fast, trick people and express myself when I was young. I'm the best midfield player in the premiership and I help others on and off the field. Teamwork is the most important part of my success. My relationship with the referee has improved a lot now I am older.

Job details

I was the joker at school, always talking. I did work experience with Ujima Radio and started making my own podcast, called 'It's a Bristol Ting'. I applied to the BBC to develop the podcast into a TV show. I'm paid to interview people on my show but the rest of the time I'm pitching my own ideas or just making them in my studio.

I loved doing hair when I was young. I had a Saturday job in a salon when I was at school and learnt how to do box braids and triangular partings. After college I earned the money to set up my own business by cutting hair on cruise ships in the Caribbean.
